CUTTED & TRIUNE 25

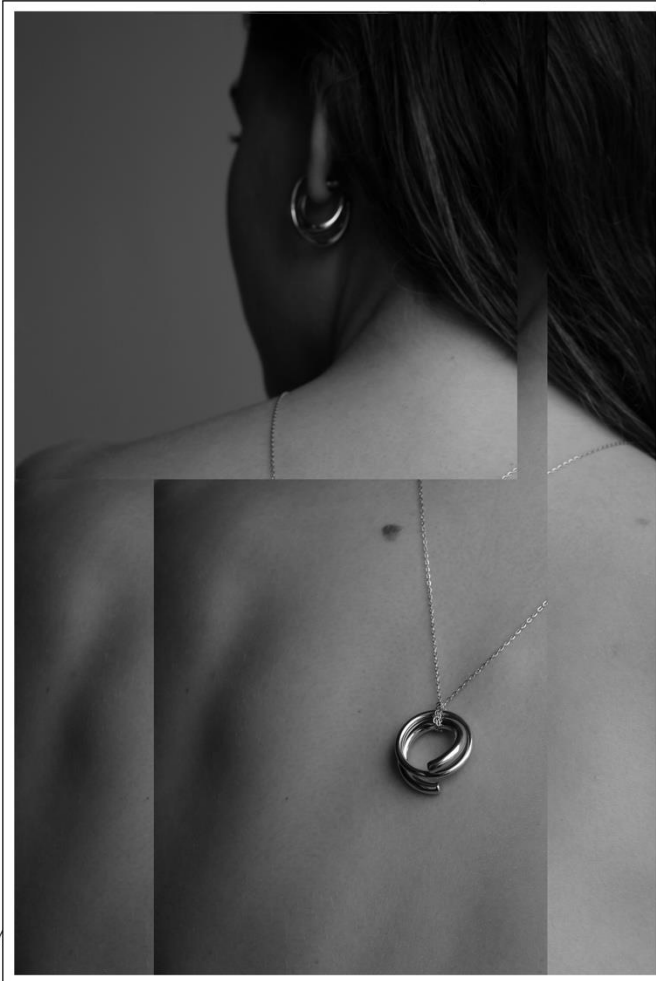

CUT/ TED

The Cutted collection is all about unexpected change. Featuring earrings, a ring, and a necklace, each piece is defined by a surprising, deconstructed cut.

A bold twist that disrupts the conventional form.

This unexpected break or 'cut' in the design isn't just an aesthetic choice; it represents the idea of a new perspective.

Just as a simple cut can transform a shape, it can also symbolize a shift in how we see the world around us and offering new insights and revealing hidden possibilities in the everyday.

TRI // UN

The Triune collection is inspired by the number three – a number that is difficult to divide, often feels unbalanced, yet to me, it is perfectly whole. Three represents my family: myself, my partner, and our daughter: the greatest gift I have ever received. It is this gift, this unbreakable bond, that makes the number three so profoundly important to me. But three is more than that: it also symbolizes a generation. It connects the past, present, and future.

This collection, which includes an ear cuff and a pinky ring, is a tribute to the strength and significance of three.
